The Year in Review

In Fiscal Year (FY) 2006, 3,200 individuals applied to the five Extramural Loan Repayment Programs (LRPs): Clinical Research, Pediatric Research, Health Disparities Research, Clinical Research for Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds, and Contraception and Infertility Research. Of those applicants, 1,651 were awarded contracts totaling $70,806,489. The combined (new and renewal applicants) success rate for the Extramural LRPs was 52 percent.

The Extramural Clinical Research LRP received 57 percent (1,821) of all applications.

New applicants (those not previously funded) constituted 60 percent of all applications while renewal applicants (those previously funded) comprised 40 percent of all applicants. Success rates for new and renewal applicants were 40 and 70 percent, respectively.

The LRPs are open to health professionals with doctoral level degrees with varying levels of experience. Many of FY 2006 awardees are beginning their careers, with 43 percent having received their post-graduate degrees within the last 5 years, and 86 percent within the past 10 years.

MDs (including those with MD/PhD degrees) comprised 54 percent of the 1,651 awardees, while those with PhDs or other doctoral level degree comprised 46 percent of the total awards.

Forty-six percent of the 1,651 awardees had educational debt greater than $50,000 with approximately three percent having debt levels greater than $200,000.

Women received 52 percent (851) of the LRP awards. Minorities, including Asian/Pacific Islanders, African-Americans, Hispanics, and Native Americans, were recipients of 26 percent (427) of the awards.

The Five Extramural Loan Repayment Programs

The NIH LRPs are a vital component of our nation's efforts to attract health professionals to careers in clinical, pediatric, health disparities, or contraception and infertility research.

Clinical Research LRP:

Clinical research is "patient-oriented clinical research conducted with human subjects, or research on the causes and consequences of disease in human populations involving material of human origin (such as tissue specimens and cognitive phenomena) for which an investigator or colleague directly interacts with human subjects in an outpatient or inpatient setting to clarify a problem in human physiology, pathophysiology or disease, or epidemiologic or behavioral studies, outcomes research or health services research, or developing new technologies, therapeutic interventions, or clinical trials."

Pediatric Research LRP:

Qualified Pediatric Research is defined as "research directly related to diseases, disorders, and other conditions in children."

Health Disparities Research LRP:

The scope of research qualified for this program includes basic research, clinical research or behavioral research directly related to health disparity populations and the medically underserved. Group is defined as a health disparity population "if there is a significant disparity in the overall rate of disease incidence, prevalence, morbidity, mortality, or survival rates in the population as compared to the health status of the general population."

Clinical Research for Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds (Clinical Research-DB) LRP:

For this program, "an individual from a disadvantaged background" is defined according to low family income levels set by the U.S. Bureau of the Census – as published in the Federal Register.

To meet this low-income requirement candidates must demonstrate their disadvantaged status by submitting (1) a written statement from former school(s) where he/she qualified for Federal disadvantaged assistance, (2) verification of receipt of loans from either the Health Professions Student Loans (HPSL) or Loans for Disadvantaged Student Program, or (3) verification of a scholarship from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under the Scholarship for Individuals with Exceptional Financial Need.

Contraception & Infertility Research LRP:

Contraception research is defined as research whose ultimate goal is to provide new or improved methods of preventing pregnancy. Infertility research is defined as research whose long-range objective is to evaluate, treat, or ameliorate conditions which result in the failure of couples to either conceive or bear young.
