GENERAL

This booklet will provide you detailed instructions, information, and assist you with completing your NIH Loan Repayment Programs (LRPs) application. The LRP Online Application System (OAS) opens on September 1st each year, though application deadlines vary by program. Those interested in applying for an LRP award should thoroughly review the LRP website to better understand the eligibility requirements, the application process, and the application deadlines for each program. This booklet is intended to be a guide for all Loan Repayment Programs, both Extramural and Intramural. There are important differences between programs. See our website and NIH Guide Notices (extramural only) for specific information regarding program information.

ELIGIBILITY

Please read all the instructions below and refer to the LRP website and NIH Guide Notices (extramural only) to obtain specific information on the programs. It is the applicants’ responsibility to read and understand the eligibility requirements prior to starting an LRP application.

Award Type:
Select “New” if you meet any of the following conditions:
• You have never received a prior LRP award.
• You have received a prior LRP award, but the end date of your last LRP contract will exceed 37 months from the start date of your next anticipated LRP contract. To determine the end date of your last LRP contract, please access your participant portal.
• You have a previous LRP award within the last 37 months, but you plan to change from one LRP to another (e.g. from Clinical Research to Pediatric Research).
Select “Renewal” if you have received an LRP award in the past, do not plan to change your LRP, and the end date of your last contract will not exceed 37 months. To determine the end date of your last LRP contract, please access your participant portal.

Contract Length Type:
For those applying to the Extramural LRPs:
• All New awards are two years in length.
• If you are applying for a Renewal award, you may choose either a one- or two-year award.
The NIH Institute or Center to which your application is assigned will make the final determination of a one- or two-year award.
For those applying to the Intramural LRPs:
• New awards are two years in length, except the General Research LRP and for ACGME Fellows, which are three years.
• Renewal awards are one year in length only.

Intramural or Extramural Loan Repayment Program:
Extramural Loan Repayment Programs are for researchers employed and supported by grant funding from a domestic, nonprofit organization. Intramural Loan Repayment Programs are only available to researchers employed by the NIH.
Loan Repayment Program to which you are applying:
Select one Loan Repayment Program from the drop down list. Detailed information about each program is available on the LRP webpage.

Select “Mentored Researcher” if you have a research supervisor. Generally, Mentored Researchers are supported by grants held by another PI.

Preferred IC for Review of Your Application (Extramural Only):
Select one NIH Institute or Center (IC) from the drop down list. Please note your selection is a preference and your application may be assigned to another IC. Applications to certain LRPs require that your application be assigned to specific ICs as follows:

- For those applicants applying to the Health Disparities Research or Clinical Research for Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds LRPs, your application will be assigned to the National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities.
- For those applicants applying to the Contraception and Infertility Research LRP, your application will be assigned to the Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development.

Secondary IC for Review of Your Application (Extramural Only):

RESEARCH INFORMATION

The Research Information tab of the LRP Application requires you to write and submit several attachments to your LRP application. You are encouraged to read all the instructions below, including formatting instructions, as it is your responsibility to comply with all stated page limits and format requirements.

Mentored applicants should write attachments collaboratively with their Mentor and/or Research Supervisor. Once you have submitted your attachments via the Online Application System, your Mentor/Research Supervisor will be asked to review the documents and concur that each item appropriately reflects your research environment, research activities, and training and development plans. There is no resubmission of these attachments; once submitted your documents are final. You should work closely with your Mentor/Research Supervisor to produce these documents prior to submission.
Independent Researchers should be able to write these attachments without the assistance of a mentor or supervisor, though a third party may proofread your documents. A mentor or supervisor will not be asked to review your attachments after submission.

Formatting Instructions

Citations:
We do not require a specific style citation format; most style guides include guidance for citations and all are acceptable. SciENcv, a tool to prepare biosketches for NIH and other agencies, uses a standard style adopted by the National Library of Medicine. If your organization does not already have a standard, you may want to consider this one.

Filenames:
Save all document attachments with descriptive filenames, as follows:
- Use unique filenames for all attachments in the application.
- Use any of the following characters: A-Z, a-z, 0-9, underscore, hyphen, space, period, parenthesis, curly braces, square brackets, tilde, exclamation point, comma, semi colon, apostrophe, at sign, number sign, dollar sign, percent sign, plus sign, and equal sign.
- Use one space (not two or more) between words or characters and do not include a space immediately before the .pdf extension.
- Avoid the use of ampersand (&) since it requires special formatting (i.e., &amp).

File Size:
Ensure file size is greater than 0 bytes and less than 5MB - we cannot accept a 0 byte attachment.

Font (size, color, type density) and Line Spacing:
Legibility is of paramount importance. Adherence to font size, type density, line spacing, and text color requirements is necessary to ensure readability and fairness. Although font requirements apply to all attachments, they are most important and most heavily scrutinized in attachments with page limits. Text in your attachments must follow these minimum requirements:
- Font size: must be 11 points or larger (smaller text in figures, graphs, diagrams, and charts is acceptable as long as it is legible when the page is viewed at 100%).
- Some PDF conversion software reduces font size. It is important to confirm that the final PDF document complies with the font requirements.
- Type density: must be no more than 15 characters per linear inch (including characters and spaces).
- Line spacing: must be no more than six lines per vertical inch.
- Text color: must be black (color text in figures, graphs, diagrams, charts, tables, footnotes, and headings is acceptable).
We recommended the following fonts, although other fonts (both serif and non-serif) are acceptable if they meet the above requirements:

- Arial
- Garamond
- Georgia
- Helvetica
- Times New Roman
- Verdana

Grantsmanship:

Use English and avoid jargon. Spell out acronyms the first time they are used and note the appropriate abbreviation in parentheses. The abbreviation may be used thereafter.

Headers and Footers:

Do not include headers or footers in your attachments. Headings (e.g., Significance, Innovation) within the text of your attachments improve readability and are highly encouraged.

Hyperlinks and URLs:

Hyperlinks and URLs may not be used to provide information necessary to application review. Reviewers are not obligated to view linked sites.

Images:

Digital images of material such as electron micrographs or gels must only be included within the page limits of the Research Project/Activities attachment. The maximum size of images to be included should be approximately 1200 x 1500 pixels using 256 colors. Figures must be readable as printed on an 8.5” x 11” page at normal (100%) scale.

Investigators must use image compression such as JPEG or PNG. Do not include figures or photographs as separate attachments in the Appendix or elsewhere in the application.

Page Limits:

Adhere to the page limits defined by the instructions for each attachment listed below. When completing and submitting your application, system checks for application completeness do not address page limit requirements. Such checks are completed by staff after application submission. You must comply with all documented page limits.

Paper Size and Margins:

Use paper size no larger than standard letter paper size (8 ½” x 11”). Provide at least one-half inch margins (top, bottom, left, and right) for all pages. No applicant-supplied information can appear in the margins.

Scanning:

Avoid scanning text documents to produce the required PDFs. It is best to produce documents using your word-processing software and then convert the documents to PDF. Scanning paper documents may hamper automated processing of your application for agency analysis and reporting.
Security Features:
Our systems must be able to open and edit your attached documents in order to generate your assembled application image for agency processing and award consideration. Disable all security features in your PDF documents. Do not encrypt or password-protect your documents. Using these features to protect your documents prevents us from opening and processing them.

Single vs. Multi-Column Page Format:
A single-column page format easily adapts to various screen sizes and is highly encouraged. Multi-column formats, especially for information spanning multiple pages, can be problematic for online review.

Attachment Instructions

Research Project/Activities:
Page Limit: Eight (8) pages
Describe the research plan you will pursue over the course of the LRP contract and your specific role and responsibilities. The plan should include: a specific hypothesis; a list of the specific aims and objectives that will be used to examine the hypothesis; and a description of the methods/approaches/techniques to be used in each aim. Literature citations, tables, graphs, and images such as micrographs or gels are included in the eight (8) page limit. Include your name, employer, title of research project, and date at the top of the document.

It is important to relate the research plan to your scientific career goals. Describe how the research, coupled with other developmental activities, will provide the experience, knowledge, and skills necessary to achieve the objectives of your career development plan.

For Mentored Applicants, your mentor will be asked by the Division of Loan Repayment (DLR) to review your research plan for accuracy. This is done independently and must be completed before the application deadline.

Research Accomplishments (Renewal Applications Only):
Page Limit: Two (2) pages
Describe your research accomplishments as they occurred under your first LRP award and subsequent renewal awards (if any). If you experienced "breaks" between LRP awards, the accomplishments statement should include research progress made during those time breaks. Your research accomplishments should emphasize the progress made toward the achievement of your specific aims described in your research plan. Explain any significant changes to the specific aims and any new directions including changes to the specific aims that may have occurred during the LRP award(s) period.

For Mentored Applicants, your mentor will be asked by DLR to review your research accomplishments document for accuracy. This is done independently and must be completed before the application deadline.

Career Development Plan:
Page Limit: Two (2) pages
For Mentored Researchers
Describe your research training program and mentoring plan. Specify the types of training interactions, training mechanisms to be used, research methods and scientific techniques to be learned, involvement in activities such as journal clubs, professional groups, conferences, or seminars, etc. Describe how your mentor will contribute to your training program and his/her prior experience as a mentor of other investigators. Additionally, the nature and extent of supervision should be discussed as they will occur during the award period. If another laboratory staff member will be involved in your mentoring program, provide his/her name, describe his/her degree of involvement. Your mentor will be asked to review your career development plan for accuracy. This is done independently and must be completed before the application deadline.

For Independent Researchers
Describe your career development plan and explain how this plan will foster the development of your career in research. This description should include not only your research, but also other developmental activities, such as seminars, scientific meetings, training in the responsible conduct of research, presentations, etc.

Training/Mentoring Plan:

For Mentored Researchers
Describe your research training program and mentoring plan. Specify the types of training interactions, training mechanisms to be used, research methods and scientific techniques to be learned, involvement in activities such as journal clubs, professional groups, conferences, or seminars, etc. Describe how your mentor will contribute to your training program and his/her prior experience as a mentor of other investigators. If another laboratory staff member will be involved in your mentoring program, provide his/her name, describe his/her degree of involvement. Your mentor will be asked to review your career development plan for accuracy. This is done independently and must be completed before the application deadline. NOTE: Use the Career Development Plan section to upload your Training/Mentoring Plan.

Research Environment:
Describe your institution’s scientific environment and how it will contribute to the probability of your success during the course of an LRP award (e.g., institutional support, physical resources, intellectual rapport, etc.). In describing the scientific environment in which the research will be conducted, discuss ways in which the research will benefit from unique features of the scientific environment and any useful collaborative arrangements.

If you are applying as a Mentored applicant, also describe institutional investment in your success, e.g., resources for classes, travel, training, etc. and financial support such as protected time for research with salary support.

NIH Biosketch:
Page Limit: Five (5) pages
Submit a Biosketch in a specified NIH format. You may use the sample format on the Biographical Sketch Format Page to prepare your Biosketch or you may use SciENcv, a tool to prepare biosketches for NIH and other agencies. It is not necessary to have a well-established career to apply to the LRP, but your Biosketch should include a list of significant honors and grants.
Personal Statement:
Describe why you are a strong candidate for an LRP award. Relevant factors may include: your previous research training and/or previous experimental work; your short and long-term academic and research objectives; any relevant academic/professional achievements or honors; any research project support awards; and any significant contributions to science.

List of Recommender/Referees: You must select three individuals to submit a recommendation letter on your behalf. If you are submitting an application as a mentored researcher, one of your recommenders must be your research supervisor/mentor, in which case two additional individuals should be chosen.

Care should be taken when selecting your recommenders. Be sure that you, your research accomplishments, and career trajectory are well known to your recommenders. Recommendation letters are due at the same time as your application. You should talk with your potential recommenders in advance and ensure that they will be able to meet the application deadlines listed on the LRP website. Late recommendations will not be accepted.
